PNC BANK PROVIDES $26 MILLION TO SCRAP METAL RECYLER

PITTSBURGH, July 24, 2017 – PNC Bank, N.A., announced today that it closed a $26 million senior secured credit facility for Tennessee Valley Recycling (TVR), based in Decatur, Alabama. PNC Bank served as administrative agent. TVR will use the funds to refinance existing senior bank debt, partially fund capital expenditures and provide for ongoing working capital needs. Treasury management products and services are included in this transaction.

Established in 2000, TVR is a family-owned business that provides scrap metal management and recycling services in the Northern Alabama and Southern Tennessee areas. The company has extensive baling, shearing, and shredding capabilities, and operates full-service scrap metal processing facilities.

PNC Bank, National Association, is a member of The PNC Financial Services Group, Inc. (NYSE: PNC). PNC is one of the largest diversified financial services institutions in the United States, organized around its customers and communities for strong relationships and local delivery of retail and business banking including a full range of lending products; specialized services for corporations and government entities, including corporate banking, real estate finance and asset-based lending; wealth management and asset management.
